English Teacher 2022

Brophy College Preparatory is currently seeking a dynamic teacher of English for a full-time opening beginning in August of 2022. Preference will be given to applicants who have the education, background, and experience to instruct students in a variety of levels and courses within the English Department. Ideally, the candidate will have some experience teaching Advanced Placement (AP) English Language and Composition and/or Literature and Composition, though this is not required. The preferred candidate will have a passion for teaching and English but also for the mission and values of Brophy’s Catholic, Jesuit identity including the work of anti-racism.

About Brophy:
Brophy is Arizona’s only Catholic, Jesuit high school. With an enrollment of 1300 boys, Brophy offers its students a rigorous and relevant college preparatory curriculum, a highly developed fine arts and music program, a diversity of extracurricular activities, and a strong retreat and service learning program. As a Jesuit school, Brophy takes great pride in striving to form well rounded young men who are firmly grounded in a relationship with God that orients them to lead lives of service. In addition to the high school, Brophy includes Loyola Academy which is a tuition-free, comprehensive junior high school program for sixth, seventh, and eighth grade boys who demonstrate academic promise but have had limited educational opportunities. For more information, visit Brophy’s webpage.

To Apply: Interested applicants should submit a letter of interest, résumé, and unofficial copies of transcripts to Bob Ryan, Principal: bryan@brophyprep.org. Compensation and benefits are commensurate with experience and are extremely competitive.

Brophy College Preparatory is an equal opportunity employer. We celebrate diversity and are committed to creating an inclusive environment for all employees.